Reynolds

REYNOLDS

In this country, if you were to count those who bear the Reynolds surname, you would total more than 100,000. That is the amount who have been listed on the Social Security rolls and does not include the thousands of parents and children who are not employed.

LIKE MANY of the English surnames its root is found in those Norman-French warriors who came with William in the Conquest. As a personal name given at baptism, Reynold was one of the most popular in the Middle Ages. Rainald(us), its Latin form, is a common Domesday Book entry and it is also found extensively in the Yorkshire records of the 14th century.

Domesday Book is one of the oldest records which contain early spellings of names; it was compiled on order of William the Conqueror and as a census lists all the landowners and property holdings of England after 1066. It is quite plain that Reynolds comes from the French personal name, Regnaud and Renaud.

American history remembers General John Fulton Reynolds, born in Pennsylvania in 1870. He commanded a brigade in the Seven Days battle near Richmond; his corps of volunteers formed the vanguard of the army at the encounter at Gettysburg where he was killed.

PERHAPS THE most illustrious painter of portraits that England ever produced was Sir Joshua Reynolds who ranks with the greatest painters of his era.

Richard Reynolds was an 18th century benefactor who is said to have been the first to employ iron instead of wood in the construction of the railways.

IT MUST be noted that those who bear the name Reynolds have some association with those of the Reynold spelling. The addition of the "s" at the end of the name was used to indicate descendency and generally meant "son of." Occasionally the "s" ending was used to indicate a servant in the employ of a man named Reynold.

The arms illustrated is one of the more significant grants on record for the name. Others, quite different in appearance, would require extensive genealogical explanation.

Good Morning!

I sent this picture to Yonda and Andy this morning and Andy said I had to send it to you because you'd get a kick out of it...Friday morning Ben asked if he could wear his clip on tie (that we bought for Easter last year, that of course, he hated) so I told him he could, but would have to wear a button shirt (that he doesn't like to wear). He agreed, and ended up going to school wearing his shirt and tie, corduroys and sneakers. He looked absolutely adorable! Over the weekend, we were in the mall and he saw another boys tie and asked for it. How can I say no? So I bought it, half expecting him to not wear it ever. After I dressed him in his John Deere "Can you dig it" tee shirt, he requested the tie too. So I let him. The attached picture is what he looked like.

How are you doing?

Love,
 Danie

Dear Bud and Lois,

It feels like winter is here again this morning. Spring is having a difficult time arriving.

We received the notice of the Hannaford reunion, but it doesn't look like any of our family will get to be there. Dan is teaching a summer course for Trine University and it begins on the 12th. Andy just bought two more houses and is getting them ready to sell, plus they had already made vacation plans. Dave is working 7 days a week and I am not able to travel anymore. I hate it. I would so love to come down to see everyone.

I am passing along Grandma Hannaford's ancestor charts to let anyone know who is interested that they are Mayflower descendants. Two of your ancestors came over on the Mayflower – Francis Cooke and Stephen Hopkins. If anyone is interested, I can furnish more information about any of these ancestors. Many people are interested in joining organizations pertaining to the Mayflower descendants.

We were sorry about Allen Edwards passing, also Evelyn Gold. She was another cousin of yours. I just heard from her at Christmas. She had not been well for a long time. Verla has been in the hospital with pneumonia but will be coming home Tuesday. She will be 92 in a couple of weeks.

Dan's daughter Lisa has adopted a little boy from the Philippines and is also adopt4eing one from Russia. They will be going over in a few weeks to pick him up. WE are anxious to see him. Dave's daughter Stephany is expecting a little boy in June. This will make me 13 greats and 1 great, great. David is now a great grandpa. Shelly's son, Dustin, was married and has a little girl. He says she is the prettiest baby he has ever seen.

We also have a new dog that we dearly love. He is just the sweetest little dog – part rat terrier and part Jack Russell. We all enjoy him so much.

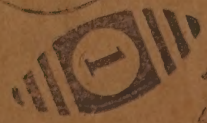

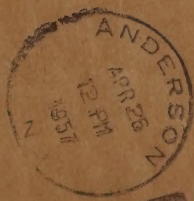

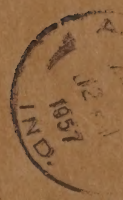

We hope you and all of yours are doing fine and know you will have a great time at the reunion.

- Love,

Shirley and family

As Daniel Boone was returning from his El Dorado in Kentucky September 1773, he was joined at Powell's Valley by several families,—among them a Polly Hannon, and Jesse Isaacs (parents unknown), who was only a few months old. While crossing the Cumberland they were attacked by Indians and several were killed. Discouraged they retreated to a settlement on Finch River, TN. However, Mrs. Hannon, with Jesse, returned to her home in North Carolina. A few years later she, her children, and Jesse, returned to Salt Creek Township. She was the first white settler to be buried in that township.

Home of W.W. Isaacs—West of Cortland, IN

John W. Isaacs was a pioneer of Jackson County. He was born in Shelby Co., KY, May 20, 1910, son of Jesse and Patience Blevins Isaacs, residents of North Carolina and Kentucky respectively.

Jesse and Patience Blevins Isaacs reared eight children. John was the eldest. They moved to Jackson County in 1820, locating in Salt Creek Township. At 13 John was bound out to George Smallwood of Brownstown Township.

John married Mrs. Mary A. Tinder, a native of Ohio. They had two children. William Ward and Jeannette.

William Ward was born Sept. 25, 1852 in the house John had built, as were his four sons after him. This historic house stood on a section of land on the road from Cortland to Acme, close to the railroad tracks. A Confederate sympathizer attempted to kill John, but the spent bullet became a keepsake.

Nov. 11, 1885, William married Mary Indiana Thompson from Bartholmew County. They had four sons: Charles Francis, who died at age four, Everett Ellsworth, William Thompson, and John Christopher. Mary died Nov. 23, 1930 and William died Feb. 23, 1941. Both are buried in the Cortland cemetery.

William Ward Isaacs graduated from Valpariso University, was a school teacher and a landed farmer. The Christian Church was their church and the Democrats their political party. He had a magnificent memory and delighted in telling of his boyhood experiences. He well remembered Halley's Comet—"so dark the chickens went to roost!" During the Civil War, Morgan's Raiders were thought to be coming past the Isaacs farm and William was sent to hide the cows in a ditch. The house is gone now but the memories richly linger.

Mrs. Bottorff is a native of Golconda, Ill., and came to Jackson County when quite small. This union has been blessed with two children, named Calvin M. and William F. Politically Mr. Bottorff is a Democrat, and has been assessor, and has held the office of township trustee, and in each case served to the entire satisfaction of the people. He is an honest and upright citizen, and enjoys the esteem of all who know him.

JOHN EISEL, of Hamilton Township, was born in Bavaria, Germany, February 28, 1833, educated in his native country, and when twenty-seven years of age immigrated to the New World, landing at New Orleans, December 31, 1860, remaining there four years and learning the butcher's trade. In 1864 he left that place and went to St. Louis, where, however, he remained but a short time. He came next to Medora, this county, and worked in the tanyard of Myron Brown for a period of eight months; then, in 1865, he moved to Seymour, remained there until 1870, and then located upon his farm in Hamilton Township, where he now resides. In January, 1861, he married Barbara Crib, a native of Germany, and they had two children: Philip and John. She died August 23, 1867, and in June, 1869, Mr. Eisel was united in matrimony with Barbara Frederick, who was born in the "fatherland," Germany. There have been two children also by this marriage. In his political views, Mr. Eisel is a Democrat.

M. C. HAMILTON, of Hamilton Township, is a native of the same township, being born within its boundaries, July 6, 1819, third son of James and Rebecca (Robertson) Hamilton, both parents natives of Virginia. The senior Hamilton moved into this county as early as 1815, and settled the next year in the township which was named after him, on the land now owned by his son, our subject. Not until the age of fifteen did Mr. Hamilton have the advantage of any schooling, his first teacher being Samuel Tanner, a resident of Brownstown Township. He has all his life been a farmer, with the exception of two years, 1861-62, when he was conducting the Scott House at Brownstown. He has been township trustee two years, 1878-79. In politics he is a Democrat, and both himself and Mrs. Hamilton are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church. June 4, 1845, occurred

Seymour Democrat
(no date given by State Library)

...the patient died in agony.
He came, and after freely with most
...of his family, before death came
...to his relief stating that he was right
...to live and was better off dead. He
...had recently sold out his farm, real-
...estate and had purchased a
...farm in Kentucky. This transaction
...did not meet the approval of his father
...and he never thought of leaving home
...again. He had also been a con...stant sufferer for the past two years
...from Bright's disease. These facts
...are thought to have been the cause of ...his action. He had never shown a ...tendency to insanity being apparently
...as sane as the time of his death as he
...ever was.

Samuel (son) was married to Miss
Eliza Fisher in 1883. Since then
...were born three children, all of whom
...with the widow survive him. He ...moved to his farm near the Latham
...school house, directly after his mar...riage and there he lived until his death.
...He served three years in the War of
...the Rebellion as a member of the 1st
...Ohio Vol. He was a member of a ...large family, six brothers and four ...sisters, all of whom were prominent
...citizens of this county. His brother
...Joseph being the present sheriff of
...this county and all of whom survive
...him, they still living in this county
...excepting those who in 1861 county
...another in Washington county this
...state, the other in Missouri.

An instance of this kind is ever to
...be forgotten, and it is the more regret-
...table when the victim is a worthy and ...esteemed citizen. The members of the ...family have the profound sympathy of
...the Haverhill readers and the com...munity in general.

The funeral occurred Saturday and
...was largely attended.

Death From Prostration.

Mrs. E. W. Shupard, of Seymour,
...died at the residence of C. W. Murphy
...in Hamilton township, on last Thurs-
...day morning of prostration. A week
...previous to her death her husband
...sickened and died at the same home-
...hold, of which we made mention last
...week. She was prostrated and was ...unable to attend her husband's funeral,
...she never called and in just one week
...to the day she followed him on whom
...she had leaned so many years in the
...saint's grave. Deceased was an esti-
...mable lady and was well known
...throughout the county. The funeral
...occurred at Seymour Sunday after...noon, and as the remains of her late
...husband are lying in a casket there, the
...two will probably be buried together.

A strange fatality seems to follow
...this family. Scarcely two months ago
...an adult daughter committed suicide,
...and now husband and wife suddenly
...pass away in a week's time.

When found, though still pretending the poisonous drug was taking effect, Doc Whitehead of this place and Yost of Valhalla, were summoned and they did all in their power, but it was of no avail as the poison had already done its work, and at a o'clock the suffering patient died in agony.

The car mill here has been purchased by the Hindertide Bros., of Freeborn and W. E. Zolman. John Smith will be partner. The mill has done a profitable business and is still in good condition.

J. J. Hunsacker has been unable to attend school since Thursday of last week. He recently joined the high school class at Sunday school, but he was not here last Sunday for non-attendance because of his illness.

W. E. Zolman bought five good horses at a special sale in Indianapolis. We think these horses would find it to be almost from Sunday school, where the class, by previous consent, paid him one dollar, the money to be paid to the treasurer of the Sunday school.

The Franklin Literary Society is preparing an excellent program for their work on Friday afternoon. A week trial will be the feature of the day, time of its members will be tried for standing citizenship. The society has not been organized very long, but its members are doing excellent work.

Fred Ringer has moved from the Heckman farm to that of William Schaeffer south east of town.

This doctor has been losing much practice on account of his own illness. He had six calls in one day, none of which he could attend.

The entire country was thrown into mourning by the death of a friend, which fell Friday morning at a o'clock.

Mrs. Highly Reynolds was born in Tennessee, July 18th. She was married to Wm. Isaac, December 1st.

Wm. Isaac died October 18th, 1894, (translating Isaac died January 18th, 1894, aged 60 years, 6 months and 10 days).

She became a member of the Christian church at the age of fifteen and lived a consistent Christian the rest of her days. She was a true companion, a loving mother and a blessed neighbor.

The funeral was preached by Elder G. M. Smith at the M. C. church after which the remains were quietly laid to rest in the Cortland cemetery.

the first marriage of Mr. Hamilton, when Miss Lucinda Mitchell, a native of this county, became his wife. Their union was blessed with two children, of whom one, James W., is living and engaged in farming in the same township. Mrs. Hamilton departed this life September 28, 1848, and Mr. Hamilton was again married in 1850, to Mary McIntyre, a native of Shelby County. Of their eight children six are living: Amy, Leroy, Wirt, Stites, Maud and Elnora. For a second time was Mr. Hamilton bereaved of his companion, May 22, 1871; and April 17, 1873, he was united in marriage with Mrs. Eliza M. Poland, a native of Ohio. By this matrimonial union there is one child, Mintie by name.

WILLIAM M. ISAACS, a farmer of Hamilton Township, is a native of the same township in which he is still a resident, where he was born March 2, 1847; the fourth son of William H. and Highley (Reynolds) Isaacs, the former a native of Kentucky and the latter of Tennessee. They settled in this county in primitive days, and their children therefore grew up with but little educational advantages. This fact, however, did not hinder them from having a good degree of common sense, industry and business management, in which they have set good examples. Most of the life of Mr. Isaacs has been passed in agriculture, and all in Hamilton Township. He was married, September 7, 1873, to Martha A. Robertson, a sketch of whose parents appears elsewhere in this work. To this matrimonial union have been born six children, of whom four are living: Ethel M., Charles, Gracie J. and Cora B. In his political views Mr. Isaacs sympathizes with the Democratic party, and in his social relations he is identified with the P. of H. He has held the office of justice of the peace eight years, and other offices in his township.

JOHN W. ISAACS, one of the pioneers of Jackson County, and for many years a resident of Hamilton Township, was born in Shelby County, Ky., May 20, 1810. His parents were Jesse and Patience (Blevins) Isaacs, who were natives, respectively, of North Carolina and Kentucky. They reared a family of eight children, of whom John W. was the oldest. They moved to Jackson County in 1820, and since that time the family has been prominently known in the county. The lack of educational advantages in the early days of the county prevented Mr. Isaacs

THE CHURCH HOUSE
WIDECOMBE

WIDECOMBE-IN-THE-MOOR (F8) is an immense parish, covering nearly 11,000 acres, of which some 4,000 acres are wild moorland. The village lies in the broad valley of the East Webburn river which is bounded by high granite-strewn ridges reaching 1,500 ft. Hamel-down Beacon (1,697 ft.) was a beacon in Elizabethan times. On the moors are many hut-circles, barrows, and kists (burial-chambers or "chests") of Bronze Age date. Hamel Down has a number of barrows, and also two of those mysterious raised trackways known as reaves. The late Mr. Hansford Worth, after studying Dartmoor for some sixty years, could come to no conclusion about their purpose or their date. At Foales Arrishes is a group of hut-circles, which are important as having produced early Iron Age pottery, evidence of a longer occupation of Dartmoor than had hitherto been suspected.

Natsworthy and Dunstone were both Domesday manors, the former the highest in Devon (1,200 ft.). On the marginal slopes we also find Dewdon (now part of Blackslade Farm), Spitchwick, and Scobitor, all in being by the late 11th cent. Bittleford is named in a Saxon charter of 956. Several fine old moorland farmhouses survive in the parish, of which Corndon, Chittleford, and Lower Tor (or Tarr) are examples. Lizwell was a "mansion" in the 17th and 18th cents. With the aid of the 2½-inch maps (sheets 20/67, 20/77) the reader should explore the parish on foot, when he will make his own discoveries.

Widecombe church (St. Pancras) is sometimes called "the cathedral of the moor" (plate 29). It is essentially a cruciform 14th-cent. church, reconstructed and enlarged in the late 15th-early 16th cent. The granite tower is noble, combining grace with strength, and is one of the finest in the west of England. The massive crocketed pinnacles are very characteristic of church towers around Dartmoor, especially W. and NW. of the Moor. The rood-screen had been cut down before 1822, but the remains are interesting, exhibiting a fine series of 32 paintings of saints, apostles, and the four Latin Doctors. The church was struck by lightning, during the Sunday afternoon service, on 21 October 1638. Four people were killed and 62 injured. The rustic verses in the N. aisle commemorate the event. The Church House (c. 1500), a fine example of a moorstone building, now belongs to the National Trust.

The well-known Widecombe Fair is held on the second Tuesday in September. Formerly great numbers of cattle, sheep and Dartmoor ponies were sold, but the modern fair is largely a "pleasure fair" and is highly commercialised. It became popular with the spread of the ballad of that name, which is inevitably sung at all village concerts in Devon, and was sung by the men of the Devon Regiment in the South African War.

This is what came from Henry Co. - no more info. - unless you can see another source to go to from that - ?
Have you ever put an inquiry in the Fulton Co., Ill.
Historical Society Newsletter - and would you like to be a member? Betty gave me the "Newsletter" as a gift
- birthday - 2 years ago - just won't give up getting me interested! Some articles on this county are interesting.
We're having a farewell gathering for friends (they introduced Wade and I) Sunday evening so my ancestry-ing has to go by the wayside the rest of this week. Sure hate to put it away - but time & energy only go so far.
Hope you had results from Ohio inquiries.

and moved to the east side of the township, where he lived until the time of his death in 1858.

Oliver Cromwell settled on the line of Morgan and Jackson in the northwest corner of the township in an early day, and was one of the first pioneers in the northern part of the county. A portion of his land extended into Morgan, and he can be termed a settler of both townships, as he was well and favorably known in each. An account of his settlement, however, will be found in the chapter devoted to Jackson.

His sons, Thomas, Benjamin and Elkin, entered lands in Morgan in the years 1827 and 1828.

Benjamin Bowlin, William Bowlin, Sr., and William, Jr., became residents as early as the year 1825, settling near the central part of the township. Isaac Beaman came in 1827, and entered land near the northern boundary of the township a couple of years later. His sons, Isaac, Laban and Abraham, came the same time, and afterward became prominent citizens of the county.

One of the earliest settlers, the date of whose arrival could not be ascertained, was William Reynolds. He came from North Carolina as early as 1823, and made a good farm in the northern part of the township, where John Brewer lives. Two brothers, Moses and John Carter, came in the year 1829, and settled in the southern part, the former making his first improvements where William Brown now lives, and the latter locating where Samuel Beaman had formerly settled. They came direct from North Carolina, making the trip of 700 miles in wagons, and were over seven weeks on the journey. Upon arriving at their destination, they found no house, so they improvised a camp of their wagons, in which the families lived until a habitation could be constructed. This was in the month of March, and very bad weather seriously interfered with the building, but they went to work manfully, and, with the help of a few neighbors, a cabin of split-poplar logs was hastily erected. A partition through the middle of the room divided it into two apartments, each of which was occupied by a family, and our pioneers began backwoods life in real earnest. An inventory of their finances at this time revealed the fact that John could produce just 12 cents of available cash, while his brother, more fortunate, could by hard work, and much searching, boast of about twice that amount. Moses lived upon the place he settled about ten years, at the end of which time he sold out to his brother-in-law, Shubal Hunt, and immigrated to Missouri, where he died in 1853. John purchased Samuel Beaman's claim, and obtained a patent for the land in the year 1830, since which time he has been one of the leading citizens of the township.

William Trent settled in the northeast corner of the township in 1830. He sold out five years later and moved to Iowa. His son Wilson afterward became a prominent Baptist preacher, and assisted in the organization of nearly all the early churches of that sect in the county.

Matthew Cummings settled where George Gerrard lives, in the southwest part of the township, about the year 1831. He sold his land a couple of years later to Mathew Phipps, and moved to the southern part of the township, and improved the farm now owned and occupied by John Freeman. His son William came with him to the new country, and figured as one of the pioneers of Morgan. Marady Lucas came in 1833, and settled on Jordan Creek, in the northern part of the township, where his son John lives. He was a native of North Carolina, and resided in the township about forty-six years.

Later came Elijah Creech and his son William, both of whom located in the western part of the township, the former entering the land upon which Charles White lives. Noah Randle and his son Benager became residents about the year 1834, settling in the northern part, where they both became owners of real estate. King Freeman came about the same time, and entered a tract of land in the western part of the township, where Hamilton Moffett lives. He afterward sold his farm and purchased in the southeast corner of the township, where his widow still resides. William Nichols was an early settler, locating where his son, A. L. Nichols, lives, as early as the year 1835. A. L. Nichols came with his father, and for almost fifty years has been one of the prominent citizens of Owen County, serving three terms as Commissioner, besides filling several minor positions of trust. Among the early settlers who became identified with the township prior to 1840, can be named William Wiley, Henry Singleton, a step-son of John Carter, and one of the earliest Justices of the Peace; John Wallace, William Carter, brother of Moses and John Carter, Robert Mustard, William Criss, Jacob Hicks and his brothers Able and Wiley, Jacob and Zachariah Beaman, David Staley, Ezekiel Jenkins, Frederick Shroer, Robert Burbridge, James W. Haltom, George Hicks and Spencer Haltom. Other settlers additional to those mentioned, are entitled to a notice, but their names and facts concerning them have been forgotten in the lapse of time. A few of those enumerated are still living, but by far the greater number have passed away as "a tale that is told," many being scattered to other lands, but by far the greater number have passed to that "undiscovered country from whose bourn no traveler returns."

EARLY CONDITION OF THE SETTLEMENTS.

The first settlers of Morgan, like the pioneers in other portions of Owen County, were of the poorer class in the States from whence they came, and experienced many hardships while clearing their homes and gaining a foothold in the new country. They at first depended mostly for meat on the game which abounded in the country. Nearly every article of clothing worn by either male or female was manufactured at home by the women on the old-fashioned spinning wheels, cards and looms. The men dressed in homespun jeans and buckskin, out of which were made pantaloons, hunting shirts, moccasins and occasionally dresses for the women. Shoes were made from leather tanned at home. To do this, a tree, three or four feet in diameter, was cut down, and as large a trough as possible dug out of it; this constituted a kind of vat, into which the hides, after being duly prepared, were placed, along with oak bark broken to pieces and pulverized a little by pounding, the whole being covered with water. They were kept in this condition until tanned. Some of the leather manufactured in this way was very good, but the most of it was rather indifferent. These primitive tanners put no blacking in their leather, for the reason that lampblack could nowhere be obtained. Of course this kind of material made a rough kind of shoe, but being the best that could be procured, the people were content. In fact such foot gear best suited the rough jaunts taken on foot by many of the pioneers, through brush, briars and grass wet with dew.

Boots were seldom worn, except by professional men, and no better evidence could be adduced of a man being a preacher, doctor or a lawyer than his appearing in public with boots on. Everything not manu-

August, 1984

Dear Friends:

As I look ahead I sometimes become more like our little friend than I'd like to admit. I suppose I'd like to think that I have a lot of faith, but I must confess there are times when I'm a bit overwhelmed with the climb. When I reach those points in the work, God always reminds me of some basic principles:

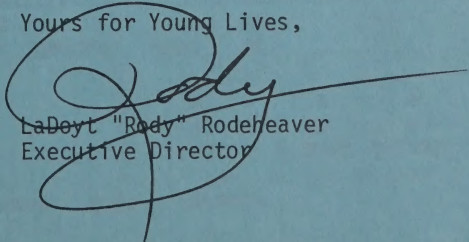

1. It's His work not mine - "He's In Charge."
2. He never calls us to do a task without providing everything we need to complete the task.
3. God raises up people to join hands and give to the cause.
4. God's timing is always perfect and it's set to an eternal clock.

This year the mountains before us are larger than ever. The Father is faithful and His principles are sure. I'm trusting Him for what lies ahead in the fall of '84'. The In Touch shows some of those challenges and I'll be updating you in the coming months.

To move into the fall confidently and to keep from falling behind financially we need to have a strong August (typically a weak-giving month). Perhaps you would consider a special gift to Youth for Christ this month. Join hands and help us climb strongly into the autumn.

We have so many people who so faithfully support our work of sharing Christ with young people. Thanks again for your prayers and gifts.

Yours for Young Lives,

LaDoyl "Reddy" Rodeheaver
Executive Director

An election for Justices of the Peace was ordered to be held on the last Saturday in April, 1819—for one Justice of the Peace in each township. In May the following persons were appointed to serve as the first grand jury in Owen County, namely: Adam Brenton, Richard Morris, James Atha, John Latta, David Lukenbill, Jacob McIntire, David Fain, Isaiah Cooper, Benjamin Croy, Abner Alexander, Elijah Chambers, Richard Kirby, Robert Patterson, David Thomas, James Bigger, Alexander McBride, William Anderson, John McNaught, Robert McNaught, Thomas Bull, John Parroshaw, William Baker, Joseph Skidmore, Luke Vaughn, Jesse Evans, Moses Hicks, James Pugh, Caleb Stansberry, Peter Zeal, John Dunn, John Johnson, John Hudson, Samuel Fain, Thomas Allen and John Bartholomew, thirty-five men good and true. At the same time there was appointed the following-named traverse jury, to wit: William Alexander, William Latta, Cassius Edwards, Daniel Harris, Berry Jones, Daniel Hall, Samuel Hicks, Daniel Beem, Thomas Bush, Joshua Mathena, John Hasket, Hugh Endsley, William McDaniel, William W. Cooper, William Lindsay, Owen Roach, James Steele, Thomas Harvey, Samuel Risley, John Gregory, Thomas Smith and Obadiah Turpin, twenty-two men good and true, making public meetings of all kinds. On the same day, William W. Cooper was appointed Constable for Washington Township, and was succeeded the next year by Joshua Matheny. Who were elected Justices of the Peace at these early elections does not appear, but David Johnson, Isaiah Cooper, William Biggar and Isaac Heaton were probably the first dignitaries to administer the law in Washington Township. The latter was afterward elected Probate Judge, and was a man of considerable ability and influence. In the election of 1820, Philip Hart, the first settler of the county, served as inspector of elections, also serving in that capacity for several years afterward. At that time there were no other offices of any consequence. The School Trustees of the township have been H. Richards, John J. Cooper. Nathan Collins, H. D. Ellis, and John R. Harrold, the present Trustee. John J. Cooper occupied that position for many years. The Justices of the Peace at present are John J. Cooper, George W. Edwards, John M. Kinney and Thomas J. Harris. The political complexion of the township is Republican, and has been since the organization of the Republican party. The Republican majority varies from 40 to 100.

CHURCHES.

"Bethel" Methodist Episcopal Church is located four miles southwest of Spencer. The church building is a one-story frame, 26x40 feet, presents a respectable appearance, and has ample and comfortable accommodations. It is located in a quiet and orderly neighborhood, and has a good membership of solid and intelligent farmers. The present building was erected in the year 1853. The church had been organized in a loose way several years previous to this time, the meetings being held in an old log church. Jesse Williams was the minister at the time of building the present church, and superintended the work. The membership at that time consisted principally of the following-named persons, some of whom are still active members: Daniel Price, Sr., Daniel Price, Jr., Aaron Price, Andrew Jackson, John Barnes, Giles Leak, Silas A. Leak, Thomas Gaskill, John T. M. Scott, John F. White, William Holman, Vivian Beck, Martha Gibson, Nathaniel Willard, E. A. Duling, Anthony S. Barnes, John M. Coleman, Frederick Sapp, Lemuel Payne, and others whose names cannot now be ascertained on account of a failure to keep any records of the church membership. The only unpleasantness that marked the smooth course of the church was the trial of an erring sister for back-biting and too much freedom in her personal statements. She was duly notified to appear for trial at the old log church, and she appeared. On account of the crowd it was decided to have the trial outside under the trees.

The wayward and talkative sister at once raised a technical point, claiming that she had not been notified in due form to appear for trial in the woods, and refused to attend. She was the liveliest of the flock, and was well known for the remarkable fluency and ease with which she handled contemporaneous biography.

The church has always been in good condition, and has never fallen into decay or lost its usefulness. It is on a solid basis, with a good membership, a spirit of harmony, and an ability to accomplish unlimited good in the community in which it is located.

The "Union of Owen" Church belongs to the Separate Baptist denomination, and is located about six miles east of Spencer. It was organized about forty-eight years ago by Samuel Randolph and John Layman, the fathers of David Randolph and Alfred Layman. The congregation then consisted of seventy-five or eighty members, and held their meetings in an old log church on McCormick's Creek, one mile southwest of the present location. The church is a frame building 36x40 feet, comfortably furnished, spring at the south end of the "narrows." They immediately built a cabin on the spot now bounded by the river, the I. & V. R. R. and the little stream by which they first pitched their camp. John Dunn entered large tracts of land in Washington Township and wielded a strong influence as the population increased. When the courts were organized, he was one of the first Judges to hold court in Owen County. His son, John R. K. Dunn, now deceased, was the first white child born in the township or county. Before a court house was built, the elections and meetings of the County Commissioners were held at his house.

Closely following the Dunn family, came Levi, Enoch and Neely Beem on the 25th of March, 1817. They were brothers and sons of Daniel Beem, who afterward joined them. On their first night in Washington Township, they camped on the mound in the new cemetery in Spencer, near the spot selected for the site of a soldier's monument. They lived in camp until they had cleared ten acres of ground and planted it in corn, and then built a log cabin on the site of their camp. The wife and infant daughter of Neely Beem were with them.

While they were still living in camp, the smoke of their fire one day attracted the attention of Samuel W. Dunn, who has already been mentioned, and he went through the woods where Spencer now stands, to see who were the new-comers. Just as he reached the camp, a huge rattlesnake crawled into the bed of leaves where Mrs. Beem had left her baby, and was discovered by her and young Dunn at the same instant. The mother screamed, and the two rushed forward and killed the reptile, probably saving the baby's life. And here, under all the rules of fairness and consistency known to romance and poetry, young Samuel ought to have remained single a few years and married his first acquaintance among the girls of Owen. A beautiful tale of the desert must remain forever incomplete, and Uncle Samuel's one chance to become the hero of a romance of the wild West was neglected and lost. The little girl grew to womanhood and was the mother of Laura McNaught, wife of Gen. T. A. McNaught. The family of Daniel Beem are all dead except Levi Beem, who is still living at his home in Washington Township. The three brothers all have children and grandchildren still living in the township. Levi Beem and his wife, Sallie Beem, have lived together in married life longer than any other couple in the township. They have been married fifty-two years.

In the spring of 1817 came Isaiah Cooper, Jacob McIntire, Dudley Miller, Richard Kirby, William Anderson, Robert Blaine, George A. McHenry and Hugh Barnes. They arrived in time to clear ground and put in crops in the season of 1817. In 1818, Elijah Chambers, Judge Eson, Peter Teal, James Galletly, Thomas Allen, Joel Shields, John Moore, Abraham Henderson, William Boalds, Martin Hardin, James Blair, John Franklin, William Latta, Eli Labertew, Alexander McBride, Jesse Evans, Andrew Evans and others came into the township. From this time on new arrivals were frequent.

Following are the names of others of the first settlers of Washington Township: William Biggar, Isaiah Cooper, Henry Matheny, Jonathan Lindley, Jonathan Lyon, Thomas McNaught, James M. H. Allison, Joseph Bartholomew, John Bartholomew, John McIndoo, William Gibson, Harris Sheppard, Hudson McCormick, Arah Osborne, Richard Hubbard, Amasa Joslin, John McCormick, Isaac Chambers, Jesse M. of town lots was now announced, the exact date of which cannot be ascertained, but it occurred some time in the year 1820. James Biggar was allowed $10 for "services rendered crying the lots for sail," also John M. Young and Andrew Evans $5 each for acting as clerks of the "sail." The following orders, made by the County Commissioners in regard to the public sale of lots, show that they fully appreciated the importance of the occasion:

Ordered by the board, that John Matheney be allowed the sum of one dollar and twenty-five cents for ferrying the peopel across White River on the day of the first sail of lots in Spencer.

Ordered by the board, that John Dunn be allowed the sum of nine dollars eighty-seven and a half cents for whiskey he furnished the county on the day of the sail of lots in Spencer.

At a subsequent sale of lots in 1822, Thomas Allen was allowed $7.59 for supplying the bidders with the joyous liquid. These orders of the board illustrate in a striking manner the public spirit, the munificence and reckless liberality of the County Commissioners of early times. It makes us sigh for the days of John Dunn and "the first sail of lots in Spencer." The Commissioners who gave the "peopel" free liquor and a free ferry at the "sail," were John Johnson, Jesse Evans and James A. Steele. Their names are immortal, and while for the temperance lecturer they may serve to "point a moral or adorn a tale," the "old settler," who has thirsted long in vain for another "sail," will look on them as the last of a noble race. The reader, however, must remember that in those days whisky was considered one of the necessities, and the strict temperance views of the present were unknown.

The following is the list of purchasers of lots at the first sale:

Thomas Allen, Lot No. 120, $28; John Bartholomew, Lot No. 61, $31.50; James Biggar, Lot No. 53, $15.50; Lowry Biggar, Lot No. 54, $13; Neely Beem, Lot No. 222, $20; — Beem, Lot No. 214, $20; Enoch Beem, Lot No. 216, $71.50; William Batterton, Lot No. 149, $56; Benjamin Parks, Lot 177, $129, and Lot 142, $46.50; Asa Chambers, Lots 178, $98; 162, $173; 143, $103.50; 123, $30.50; 49, $14; 93, $176; 200, $56.50; No. 8, in Southport, $56; Andrew Evans, No. 174, $53; John M. Jeanne Josephine, was born. The family moved to a home, on five acres, on the outskirts of Vallonia, in 1956. Here, the Reids became the parents of three more children; Katherine Ann, 1957; Pamela Kay, 1959; and Marion Kordell, 1961. For 11 years the family enjoyed the peaceful tranquility of rural living.

Life became busier, and in 1968, the then-hectic schedule influenced their decision, to relocate in Brownstown. They bought a camper, pitched a tent, converted a horse barn into a large closet, and everyone had a hand, in the building of their new home. The result was a functional and moderately styled 5200 square foot home, with seven bedrooms and six bathrooms.

Jim Reid, a World War II veteran, worked as the Plant Manager and Vice-President of Marion Kay Company in Brownstown, where he was employed for over 24 years. He studied the chemical analysis of Vanilla under Noble Stormont, one of the few experts in this field. In 1955, Mr. Summers and Jim designed a special percolation process, for vanilla beans, and started the vanilla processing company of Summers and Reid, Inc. In August of 1986, Jim and Madelyn took over the family business. They now own and operate the businesses of Summers & Reid and Marion-Kay Company, with the assistance of their two sons, John Scot and Marion Kordell Reid.

Madelyn Reid was a homemaker until 1965, when she decided to undertake a college degree program, an uncommon and ambitious choice, for a woman, in those days. She obtained a Bachelor of Science degree in three years and in 1975 received a Master of Science degree from Indiana University. Mrs. Reid taught school for one year in Clear-spring, one year in Medora and 14 years in the Brownstown Central School System, at the Middle School and High School.

Sports has been an important part of the Reid family life, Jim was chosen as a manager for three U.S. Olympic Trials, Basketball teams (1970-71-72) at the Air Force Academy, in Colorado Springs, CO. He was Chairman of Indiana AAU basketball for ten years; National AAU committee member, 18 years; member of the United States Olympic and AAU Basketball Committees, for 12 years. In 1964, Jim spent three months in Africa, as Head Basketball Coach of the American Team, sponsored by the U.S. State Department.

John earned 15 varsity letters in five sports, at Brownstown Central High School. He was a member of the Pan American Basketball team, in Puerto Rico, in 1971; competed in the United States Olympic basketball trials, in 1970 and 1971; received a basketball scholarship, to Austin Peay State University, in 1970.

Kordell was Indiana High School State Champion, in swimming, in 1979, in the 50-yard freestyle and he was a member of the 1975 State water polo championship team. Kordell earned a swimming scholarship to Texas A & M University where he became captain of the Texas A & M Swim Team.

All four girls were high school cheerleaders and Jeanne went on to become varsity cheerleader, at the University of Evansville. Kathy placed third, in the state, in the 220-yard dash. Kathy, Kordell and Carol all coached the Brownstown swim team and Carol married a former Swimming National Champion, who is now the Head Swim Coach, at Texas A & M University.

The family has been active in many community affairs. Jim helped design and build the Hickory Hills Golf Course. Madelyn choreographed Brownstown High School's second musical, "The Boyfriend", followed in the next years by "Cindy", "Hello Dolly", and "The King and I". Madelyn and Edna Mae Smith, of Vallonia, designed and made most of the costumes for "Hello Dolly" and "The King and I".

Carol was crowned "Miss Seymour, 1972" and has worked as an actress, in television and radio commercials, in Dallas, TX. Pam served as High School Hoosier Girls State Delegate, in 1976, and Jeanne received the Elks Leadership Award, in 1974. All the children sang in the church choir, at the United Methodist Church, in Vallonia, and were involved in high school and community musicals, plays and productions.

The Reids are well-known for their culinary skills. Many of the young people, of the community, were at home in the Reid kitchen. Jim became famous for his chili and was known for years as the "bean man", when he volunteered his time, for Fort Vallonia Days. Today, all of the Reids are avid cooks and would be undaunted, if they were told... "One hundred people are coming for dinner"!

August, 1984

Dear Friends:

As I look ahead I sometimes become more like our little friend than I'd like to admit. I suppose I'd like to think that I have a lot of faith, but I must confess there are times when I'm a bit overwhelmed in the work, God always reminds me of some basic principles:

1. It's His work not mine - "He's In Charge."
2. He never calls us to do a task without providing everything we need to complete the task.
3. God raises up people to join hands and give to the cause.
4. God's timing is always perfect and it's set to an eternal clock.

This year the mountains before us are larger than ever. The Father is faithful and His principles are sure. I'm trusting Him for what lies ahead in the fall of '84'. The In Touch shows some of those challenges and I'll be updating you in the coming months.

To move into the fall confidently and to keep from falling behind financially we need to have a strong August (typically a weak-giving month). Perhaps you would consider a special gift to Youth for Christ this month. Join hands and help us climb strongly into the autumn.

We have so many people who so faithfully support our work of sharing Christ with young people. Thanks again for your prayers and gifts.

Yours for Young Lives,

LaDee L. "Reddy" Rodeheaver

Dear Friends:

As I look ahead I sometimes become more like our little friend than I'd like to admit. I suppose I'd like to think that I have a lot of faith, but I must confess there are times when I'm a bit overwhelmed with the climb. When I reach those points in the work, God always reminds me of some basic principles:

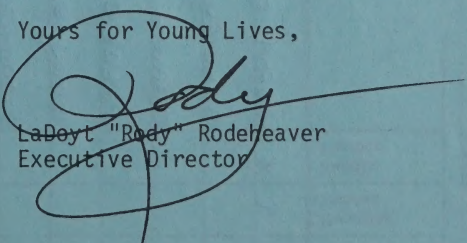

1. It's His work not mine - "He's In Charge."
2. He never calls us to do a task without providing everything we need to complete the task.
3. God raises up people to join hands and give to the cause.
4. God's timing is always perfect and it's set to an eternal clock.

This year the mountains before us are larger than ever. The Father is faithful and His principles are sure. I'm trusting Him for what lies ahead in the fall of '84'. The In Touch shows some of those challenges and I'll be updating you in the coming months.

To move into the fall confidently and to keep from falling behind financially we need to have a strong August (typically a weak-giving month). Perhaps you would consider a special gift to Youth for Christ this month. Join hands and help us climb strongly into the autumn.

We have so many people who so faithfully support our work of sharing Christ with young people. Thanks again for your prayers and gifts.

Yours for Young Lives,

LaDoyl "Rody" Rodeheaver
Executive Director

4. God's timing is always perfect and it's set to an eternal clock.

This year the mountains before us are larger than ever. The Father is faithful and His principles are sure. I'm trusting Him for what lies ahead in the fall of '84'. The In Touch shows some of those challenges and I'll be updating you in the coming months.

To move into the fall confidently and to keep from falling behind financially we need to have a strong August (typically a weak-giving month). Perhaps you would consider a special gift to Youth for Christ this month. Join hands and help us climb strongly into the autumn.

We have so many people who so faithfully support our work of sharing Christ with young people. Thanks again for your prayers and gifts.

August, 1984

Dear Friends:

As I look ahead I sometimes become more like our little friend than I'd like to admit. I suppose I'd like to think that I have a lot of faith, but I must confess there are times when I'm a bit overwhelmed with the climb. When I reach those points in the work, God always reminds me of some basic principles:

1. It's His work not mine - "He's In Charge."
2. He never calls us to do a task without providing everything we need to complete the task.
3. God raises up people to join hands and give to the cause.
4. God's timing is always perfect and it's set to an eternal clock.

This year the mountains before us are larger than ever. The Father is faithful and His principles are sure. I'm trusting Him for what lies ahead in the fall of '84'. The In Touch shows some of those challenges and I'll be updating you in the coming months.

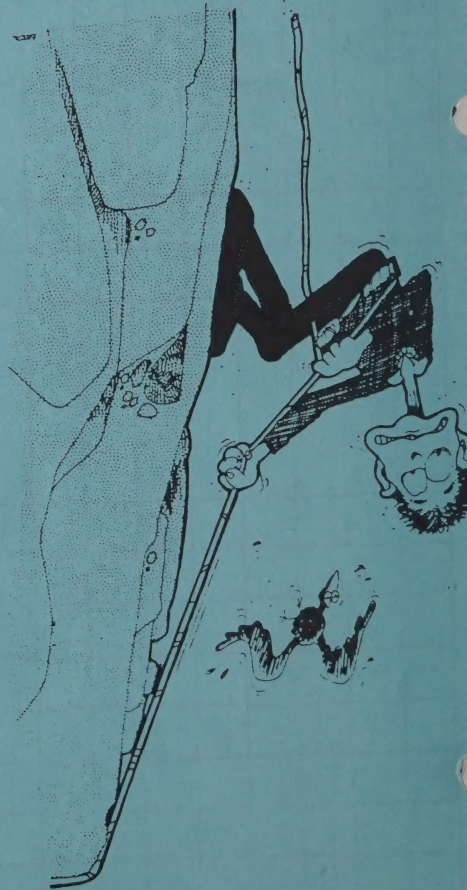

To move into the fall confidently and to keep from falling behind financially we need to have a strong August (typically a weak-giving month). Perhaps you would consider a special gift to Youth for Christ this month. Join hands and help us climb strongly into the autumn.

We have so many people who so faithfully support our work of sharing Christ with young people. Thanks again for your prayers and gifts.

Thank you for replying to my query in the Tri State Trader. Thomas Evan Reynolds was my great grandfather and I do agree with you that our Reynolds families are very probably related.

The one lead I have to Thomas' parents is family information that he had a sister, Hannah Lucille (Reynolds) Gilbert who was born 9 June 1847. On her death certificate her parents were given as Benjamin Reynolds and Priscilla Turpin (this time in Turpin). Thomas' death certificate lists the name of his father as "unknown" and mother name as "Turpin". The marriage of a Benoni Reynolds and Priscilla Turpin on 14 Dec. 1825 was recorded in Washington County in the courthouse at Salem.

The 1850 census of Brown County lists in VanBuren Twp. a Benoni Reynolds age 52 and wife Priscilla age 44 with a child in the household, Lucille age 3 but there is no child Thomas Deac. Since Thomas' death certificate gives his birth date as 12 Jan 1823 I wondered why he was not on that census and started checking further. I have a copy of his marriage certificate showing Thomas E. Reynolds and Mary Hobbs were married on 9 Sept. 1846.

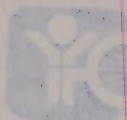

I have been unable to find a Thomas E. Reynolds in 1850 in Brown, Washington or Delaware Counties but in the 1850 Brown Co. census, VanBuren Twp I did find:

Name	Age	Sex	Color
Reynolds, Thomas	22	m	Ind
Mary	23	f	"
George W.	2	m	"
Hanny A.	1	f	"

The 1850 Delaware Co. census shows in Mt. Pleasant Twp:

Name	Age	Sex	Color	Other
Reynolds, Thomas E.	22	m	Ind	father
Nathie	30	wf	"	mother
Geo. W.	12	son	"	S.C.

Sam J.	2	son	"	"
John J. Reynolds	2	son	"	"
Mary	2	son	"	"

As you can see, Thomas E.'s age is a complete mystery. It doesn't

Dear Mrs. Hannaford,

Thank you for replying to my query in the Tri State Trader. Thomas Evan Reynolds was my great grandfather and I do agree with you that our Reynolds families are very probably related.

The one lead I have to Thomas' parents is family information that he had a sister, Hannah Emeline (Reynolds) Gilbert who was born 9 June 1847. On her death certificate her parents were given as Benjamin Reynolds and Priscilla Turpin (this ties in with your Polly, possible sister of Amy, who married Daniel Turpin). Thomas' death certificate lists the name of his father as "unknown" and mothers name as _____ Turpin. The marriage of a Benoni Reynolds and Priscilla Turpin on 14 Dec. 1825 was recorded in Washington County in the courthouse at Salem.

The 1850 census of Brown County lists in VanBuren Twsp. a Benoni Reynolds age 52 and wife Priscilla age 44 with a child in the household, Emeline age 3 but there is no child Thomas Evan. Since Thomas death certificate gives his birth date as 12 Jan 1830 I wondered why he was not on that census and started checking further. I have a copy of his marriage certificate showing Thomas E. Reynolds and Mary Mathis were married on 9 Sept. 1866.

I have been unable to find a Thomas E. Reynolds in 1860 in Brown, Bartholomew or Delaware Counties but in the 1870 Brown Co. census, VanBuren Twsp I did find:

Runnel, Thomas,	age 22	b. Ind.
Mary	23	"
George W.	2	"
Nancy A.	1	"

The 1880 Delaware Co. census shows in Mt. Pleasant Twsp:

Reynolds, Thomas E.	age 30	b. Ind	father b. Ind	mother b. Ind
Mathis	30	wf	"	"
Geo. W.	12	son	"	S.C.
Nancy A.	11	dau	"	Ind

Dear Mrs. Hannaford,

Thank you for replying to my query in the Tri State Taster. Thomas Evan Reynolds was my great grandfather and I do agree with you that our Reynolds families are very probably related.

The one I had I have to Thomas' parents is family information that he had a sister, Hannah Esaline (Reynolds) Gilbert who was born 9 June 1847. On her death certificate her parents were given as Benjamin Reynolds and Priscilla Turpin (this ties in with your Polly, possible sister of Amy, who married Daniel Turpin). Thomas' death certificate lists the name of his father as "unknown" and mother name as "Turpin". The marriage of a Benjamin Reynolds and Priscilla Turpin on 14 Dec. 1825 was recorded in Washington County in the courthouse at Talbot.

The 1850 census of Brown County lists in Vanhook Twp. a Benjamin Reynolds age 52 and wife Priscilla age 44 with a child in the household, Esaline age 3 but there is no child Thomas. Since Thomas' death certificate gives his birth date as 12 Jan 1830 I wondered why he was not on that census and started checking further. I have a copy of his marriage certificate showing Thomas E. Reynolds and Mary Mathis were married on 9 Sept. 1856.

I have been unable to find a Thomas E. Reynolds in 1860 in Brown, Bartholomew or Delaware Counties but in the 1870 Brown Co. census, Vanhook Twp I did find:

Benjamin, Thomas	age 52	B. Ind.
Mary	52	"
George W.	2	"
Mary A.	1	"

The 1880 Delaware Co. census shows in Mt. Pleasant Twp:

Reynolds, Thomas E.	age 50	B. Ind.
Mathis	30 wt	"
Geo. W.	12 son	"
Mary A.	11 dau	"
Thos. H.	9 son	"
Anna J.	7 dau	"
(My mother) Mathis	4 dau	"
Katy	2 dau	"
Joseph	6/12 son	"

As you can see, Thomas E.'s age is a complete mystery. It doesn't agree anywhere.

As for his wife, Mary Mathis, her death certificate states that she was born in Brown Co., father's name _____ Mathias b. North Carolina and mother's name and birthplace unknown. Her age was given as about 91. In the Brown Co. 1850 census I found a Littleton Mathis age 54, Teuben Mathis age 52, Martha Mathis age 57, all from N. Carolina and living in Washington Twsp; William Mathis age 53 also born in N. Carolina and living in Hamblin Twsp. There was also a Mathew Mathis age 36 b. Ky and an Elisha Mathis b. Va. but I could find no Mary in any of the families of an age to have been "my" Mary.

In the 1860 Brown Co. census I found a Mary Mathis age 16 and a Squire Mathis age 11 living with the family of a Squire West whose wife (Arvana?) was born in N. Carolina so went back to the 1850 census and found a Squire Mathis age 1 was with the family of William Mathis in Hamblin Twsp. but there was no Mary - so dead end on that tack!

Since your James Mathis was born in Ohio, it doesn't seem that he was related to Mary.

The 1840 Brown Co. census, VanBuren Twsp shows:

Anna Renolds	Benoni Renolds
1 male 15 - 20	1 male 0 - 5
1 female 5 - 10	1 " 30 - 40
1 " 15 - 20	1 " 40 - 50
1 " 40 - 50	1 female 5 - 10
	1 " 10 - 15
	3 " 15 - 20
	1 " 30 - 40

This wasn't much help to me. Does it help you?

You mentioned the marriage of Hiram Reynolds to Priscilla Tull 10-18-1853 and in my notes from the 1850 Brown Co. census I had the following:

Jackson Township #72/72
Levin Tull	age 56
Malvina "	28
John "	23
William "	21
Isaac "	14
Polly Ann "	13
Martin V. "	10

William Reynolds	6

	N.C.

Also from this same census:

Aaron "	17
Anna "	13
David "	11
	b. Ky.

Is this my?

As for his wife, Mary Mathis, her death certificate states that she was born in Brown Co., father's name _____ Mathis b. North Carolina and mother's name and birthplace unknown. Her age was given as about 91. In the Brown Co. 1850 census I found a Littleton Mathis age 54, Keuben Mathis age 52, Martha Mathis age 57, all from N. Carolina and living in Washington Twp; William Mathis age 53 also born in N. Carolina and living in Hamilton Twp. There was also a Mathis Mathis age 36 b. Ky and an Eliza Mathis b. Va. but I could find no Mary in any of the families of an age to have been "my" Mary.

In the 1850 Brown Co. census I found a Mary Mathis age 16 and a Spurie Mathis age 11 living with the family of a Spurie West whose wife (Arianna?) was born in N. Carolina so went back to the 1850 census and found a Spurie Mathis age 1 was with the family of William Mathis in Hamilton Twp. but there was no Mary - so that end on that track!

Since your James Mathis was born in Ohio, it doesn't seem that he was related to Mary.

The 1840 Brown Co. census, VanBuren Twp shows:

Anna Reynolds	1 male 15 - 20
1 female 5 - 10	1 " 15 - 20
1 " 15 - 20	1 " 40 - 50
1 female 5 - 10	1 " 10 - 15
1 " 10 - 15	3 " 15 - 20
1 " 30 - 40	1 " 30 - 40

This wasn't much help to me. Does it help you?

You mentioned the marriage of Hiram Reynolds to Priscilla Tull 10-18-1853 and in my notes from the 1850 Brown Co. census I had the following:

William Reynolds	6	"

Also from this same census:

VanBuren Twp #20/20	40	b. Ky.
William Crouch	43	"
Anna "	20	Ind.
Polly "	18	"
Daniel "	17	"

I found the fact that a Reynolds was living with Mary Crouch and also with Levin Tull very intriguing. Do you have anything more on this?

I have corresponded with a Mrs. Helen H. Reeve in Columbus who has been very helpful since she and her husband are involved in research on Brown Co. families such as Reynolds who appear in the early records.

Also, I have information from the Washington Co. records sent to me by Miss Lullie Davis, Secretary of the Washington Co. Historical Society. She says there was a Phoebe Turpin, who came to Washington Co. rather early with her father Ambrose Garriott, and who was the widow of Thomas Turpin and was married in Kentucky.

I was very interested in your notation of Evan Reynolds who was living in Jackson Twsp. in 1840. The only Reynolds I found in Brown Co. in a census Index for 1840 published in the Hoosier Genealogist were Anna and Benoni. Did you find the information in a history and was there anything more about him? Since my great grandfather's middle name was Evan there might be a connection.

Sorry to have rambled on so long but hope some of this will help you and I'd be delighted to share clues with you. Maybe we are cousins of some sort.

Sincerely,

Johanna Clift

I don't have much on the early Whittington family. What I do have came from Mary Lou Woods. Francis L Whittington Sr md Mary Reynolds. I don't know what children they had other than Francis Jr who md Mary Walters. I have their children and decendants.

in 1903 Bartholomew Co city directory, Lottie Rutter Whittington has in her household, John W, Patsy, Wm H.

Also in Harrison Twp, city of Columbus in the same household

Ben I Whittington, Frank L and George. [I think these are Patsy's children according to names from her will]

I am researching my Reynolds family. I have a Francis L. Whittington married Patsy Reynolds about 1840. They had a son Henry born about 1853. I show 8 children. Both Francis and Patsy died in Harrison Twp., Bartholomew Co., IN. They had a son, that I show to be the Rev. Francis L. Whittington. Willing to share information if this is the right family you are seeking.

Bernadine told me the other day my writing was getting terrible! I believe, I keep wanting to write up hill I imagine the cataract on the right eye does that.
I had the gall bladder taken out but she is still draining a lot she went home the 4th but had to go back to the hls today
I think I'd let her go home too soon
But you look for the mail man every day?
Imagine your mail man thinks you are very popular!! Hope these records will help Jean Manning I was wondering if Jefferson Reynolds could be my father and maybe Mary his mother?? (who knows)
Love
Marie.

JOSEPH LETCHER REYNOLDS

520

My grandfather Joseph Letcher Reynolds, was a Methodist minister. He was sent to the Jefferson charge as his first assignment with the Western North Carolina Conference. He was a descendant of Abraham Reynolds who was among the first settlers of Buncombe County. Abraham was born March 20, 1768 in Maryland and came to North Carolina during the Revolutionary War period. It is thought that he was one of the scouts who came to the mountains with General Griffith Rutherford to put down the Indian uprising. They received land grants from the state of North Carolina for their services, and Abraham received seven land grants totaling 1,540 acres on Bent Creek near Asheville.

Abraham Reynolds and his wife Mary Leazer (of Rowan County) had twelve children. They were Catherine, John, Abraham, Joseph Page, Arron, Anna, Susan, Samuel, Mary, Barbara, Ruth, and Daniel. Abraham built his house on Bent Creek near the mouth of Boyds' Creek and lived peaceably with the Indians who roamed over his land. At times the Indians encamped at their two summer camps above and below his home until their forced removal in 1838.

Joseph Page Reynolds, who was the son of Abraham Reynolds, married Cornelia Atkinson of Cabarrus County. She was born October 25, 1810, the daughter of William Atkinson, an English silversmith of Concord. Joseph Page and Cornelia had nine children. They were Caroline, Adolphus, Milton, Joseph Page, Mary, Harriet, Daniel, Julia, and John Haskew.

John Haskew Reynolds, born March 24, 1836, married Sara Ann Ferguson of Haywood County. John Haskew fought in the Civil War and kept a diary of his experiences. At the battle of Chickamauga his right hand was shot and had to be amputated. He developed blood poisoning from lack of sterile conditions and almost died. While recuperating he became interested in medicine. He became a country doctor and practiced medicine and farmed until his death. John and Sarah had seven children. They were Joanna, Alady, Elura, Cornelia, Dr. Alonzo, Dr. Thomas and Rev. Joseph Letcher Reynolds.

Joseph Letcher Reynolds Family.

Brice Howard Beatty Family.

Joseph Letcher Reynolds was born January 26, 1879 at Sandy Mush in Buncombe County. He was the youngest child of John and Sara Ann Reynolds. His mother died when he was 12 years old. She was a very religious woman and had a profound effect upon the lives of her children. Letch carved "PREACHER" on a tree when he was nine years old.

After his mother's death, Letch lived with his married sisters Anna Wells, Alady Worley and Cornelia Reeves. Later his brother Dr. A.C. Reynolds took him to schools and colleges where he went to school and taught. They were Camp Academy, Rutherford College and George Peabody College. Letch also went to Trinity College which is now Duke University. Letch taught school for awhile and then went out west and worked in lumber camps in Washington and Oregon. Later he came home and became a principal in a Buncombe County School. He married one of the teachers in his school Sue Mackey in 1910. She was a descendant of the Curtis, McCurry, and Jord families of Wilkes and McDowell Counties.

Letch felt called to preach and he joined the Western North Carolina Conference and his first charge was Ashe County, Jefferson, W. Jefferson, Orion, Bethany, and Mill's Creek (1920s). He held revivals at Warren's Mill and Smethport. He helped to build the West Jefferson Methodist Church and a stained glass window has his name printed on it. Letch brought his family to Jefferson in late October by train. The winters were cold and severe with the blowing great drifts of snow. His horse would fall with him on the icy roads on the way to visit some of the families. He not only preached was called on to teach math and Latin in the boarding school in Jefferson when the principal or teachers were sick. Several of the high school boys became ministers under his ministry. He prayed for the lost, visited the sick and comforted the dying. I think the five years in Ashe County were some of his most enjoyable years. He spoke often of the revivals at Orion and Mills's Creek and of the Colvards, Houcks, Millers, Worths, Graybeals, Parkers, Degraives and other families.

My mother Sara Reynolds is a daughter of Letch and she remembers life in Ashe County as being exhilarating and enchanted. She told of playing in the hills and about tall chestnut trees on the school grounds. She would awake early on a crisp fall morning to go out in the fog and pick up big shiny chestnuts and chinquapins. Large black heart cherry trees grew up and down the street. They played base at school and her heroes were the basketball players who played on an outside court. The girl's team wore middies and voluminous pleated black bloomers that were below their knees. She loved the sleigh rides on a steep hill by the school and ice skating on the ice pond below the school with fires on the bank at night.

She remembers Jefferson as a pretty park-like town with cherry, oak, pine and spruce trees on both sides of the street. The old post office was formerly an old inn. As a child this building seemed very mysterious and forbidding. There was a lane in back of the houses where people on horses came during the county court session. They swapped horses, smoked pipes, chewed tobacco, drank whiskey out of jugs or fruit jars and swore. She and her brother would sneak off and climb up a cherry tree by the wooden fence in back of the house and watch them with fear and fascination. In the fall they also watched the drovers drive the cattle through town bound for Wilsesboro and eastern markets.

The highlight of spring was the commencement at the end of the school year. Each class had a part, with songs, recitations, dances, and little plays called operettas. The girls wore white veil or organdy or pastel crepe de chine dresses with gathers, ruffles and pink or blue satin ribbon sashes. They wore ribbons in their hair and black patent leather shoes.

Then in the summer the Chautauqua came to town for several days. The pretty actresses in beautiful glittery evening gowns played, sang, gave readings and acted in plays. These productions were enjoyed by all because they did not have other forms of entertainment such as radio, television, and movies. Some of the summer lady guests staying at the old hotel across the street from the parsonage wore knickers and short dresses and shocked the whole town.

Christmas was a very special time at the Jefferson Methodist Church. The star, wise men, shepherds, and angels with cheese cloth wings made a beautiful manger scene for the live Christmas pageant. The smell of hay and the burning candles on the Christmas tree surrounded by toys excited the children. Even the trudge home in the sparkling snow with the stars like diamonds in the sky gave one a feeling of having been to Bethlehem.

The coming of the cars also stood out in my mother's memory. Her father purchased a model T Ford from the Graybeals. The children sat in the car in the shed for days and argued over who would drive. The road from Jefferson to West Jefferson was a narrow dirt road. Passing was done with great difficulty because of the barb wire fences on both sides of the road. The family drove the car to Asheville and it took two days of hard driving. There were many detours as people were building the roads with dynamite, mules, and drag pans. Occasionally they had to be pulled out of the mud by mules. Late one evening they had to sleep in the car out in the country and wait for daybreak to continue their trip.

Letch was a nature lover and he transmitted his love of nature to his children. Mother remembers the beautiful rivers, and grandfather seining for fish with some men in the river near Mill's Creek. A young girl poled her across the South Fork of New River in a boat near Orion which I am sure grandfather would not have approved of. Lastly she remembers grandfather baptizing some of the people by immersion in the North Fork of New River.

Rev. Joseph Letcher and his wife Sue (Mackey) Reynolds had six children who were: Helen, John Mackey, Lucille, Ruth, Joseph Charles, and Sara.

Sara Reynolds married Brice Howard Beatty from a pioneer family of Catawba County. His ancestors were John Beatty, who was the first white man to cross the Catawba River, and his son Thomas Beatty, a signer of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence. Three of Brice's forebears were Revolutionary War soldiers (Thomas Beatty, and Adam and Samuel Sherrill).

Sara and Brice Beatty have two children: Letcher Reynolds Beatty of Asheville and Sara Marie Beatty who married Dr. Michael C. White of Emporia, Virginia.

Letch moved on to other charges but he never forgot his time in Ashe County and Jefferson. He remained true to the Pentecostal concepts his mother taught him. His door was always open to the poor or sick. One lady said of him "He was the kindest man I ever knew."

He was the principal promoter of the erection of the Shields High School building, and the colored school, and also the large addition to the common school. He has been a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, since 1847. The following children have blessed him, and their wife: Eva, Jane and Maurice (twins), Sanford E. and Edith. They are all dead except George and Sanford. The Carter family is one of the most prominent among the early pioneers.

TRAVIS CARTER, who has watched the growth of Seymour from a mere hamlet to its present prosperous proportions, and has been closely identified with its material growth, is a native of Jackson County, born September 25, 1813. His parents, Benjamin and Nancy (Reynolds) Carter, were natives of Virginia. His early educational advantages were only those offered to pioneers generally, viz., of a log schoolhouse and the three months' term. He commenced upon a farm in Grassy Fork Township until 1852, when he came to Seymour, where he located before there was a regular school. In 1851 he built the first ending-machine, and in 1853 the first planing-mill. On the 24th of December, 1840, he was married to Esther Killey, a native of Tennessee. Seven children have been born to them, five of whom are living: Benjamin, Matie, William A., Mary and John A. He formerly held the office of trustee of Grassy Fork Township, and has been a justice of the peace of Seymour. He was one of three who established the Seymour Woolen Mills, John Love and Charles Butler being associated with him in this enterprise. He was one of the directors of the hub and spoke factory, selling out after a brief operation. He was also first postmaster of Seymour.

W. A. CARTER was the fourth born to Travis and Esther (Killey) Carter. Travis Carter was one of the pioneer citizens of Seymour as well as Jackson County. W. A. Carter is a native of Jackson County. He was born October 13, 1849, near Tampico, in Jackson County. They, after their removal to Seymour, occupied the second existing house in the place. He attended the common schools of his day, where only the common branches were taught in a rude and imperfect manner. He here acquired the rudiments of an education. He afterward served an apprenticeship to a carpenter, and followed this vocation until, his eyes failing him, he was compelled to engage in the book and stationery trade, where he removed in 1878, and returned to Seymour, Missouri, making them direct on November 4, 1872, to Carrie, an influential German family. They have blessed this union with four children: Travis B., William O., Thomas and John. He is a native of Jackson County, and has been in the daily market business on Avenue, Seymour. He is though comparatively a young man, a native of a hamlet of two hundred and fifty inhabitants. He is a member of the

DR. WILLIAM M. CASEY, a native of Cincinnati, Ohio, June 16, 1841 (Hancock) Casey, both of whose fathers came to Indiana from Kentucky. Until he arrived in Seymour, William alternated farming and teaching. He then entered Moore's High School, where he remained three years; after which he came to this State, where he attended school. Returning to his native State, he was employed as a writer in Scott County, and followed the profession of principal of the high school, and the study of medicine. The following year he attended the medical college and the next year attended the law school, and graduated the first year. He first located in Seymour, and eighteen months later he moved to New York City. Returning

Isaac Rector now owns a good mill at the Cave Spring, one and a half miles east from Fayetteville. It was built about the year 1870, but prior to that time another had been there for years. The power is supplied by water, and it is provided with two sets of buhrs, one for wheat and one for corn.

SALT-VELLS.

On Indian Creek, near the mouth of Goose Creek, there used to be a considerable quantity of salt made in early times when that article of commerce was scarce and costly on the frontier, and when the currents of trade moved slowly and with much labor. Abraham Reynolds carried on this business for several years and with some profit. Cheap transportation has entirely done away with all such industrial enterprises in this part of the country, especially where salt is found in such sparing quantities. In 1824 Joseph Laughlin dug a salt well 150 feet deep, but did not find salt in sufficient quantities to pay for the trouble and expense of manufacture. This was on the farm at this time owned by Jackson Kern, and the well is yet flowing and furnishes a good supply of water.

FIRST TAVERN AND STORE.

One of the early settlers here was Samuel Simons, at the present site of Fayetteville, where he kept a tavern for the benefit of the frontier pilgrims. The bill of fare here was probably not extended beyond the homely food of the pioneers. It is said that many of his meals during the summer season were mostly composed of sweet milk and roasting ears, for which the price was 25 cents. Two years was the extent of his hotel business, at the end of which time he located on the farm afterward so long occupied by Ezekiel Short.

As the van of civilization makes its way through the uncultivated wilds of a new country, the various branches of trade and commerce follow in their natural order. But what a contrast the rude log habitations of trade on the frontier present to the gilded offices and palace stores of a long settled and wealthy community! In the former will be found, scattered in promiscuous heaps, the cheap and scanty articles which the frugal habits of early settlers demand. The proprietor himself, perhaps, sits leaning back on a splint-bottomed chair before his door, watching with satisfaction the approach of a single customer, and contemplating with delight the paltry profit on his wares. Not thus the merchant in a populous city. His business moves on with an easy flow, conducted by courteous and ever ready clerks, while he reclines at ease in an upholstered office, and dictates the course for his subalterns to pursue.

OTHER MERCHANTS.

Among the first merchants of Lawrence County was John Vestal, who moved to Fayetteville in 1816 or 1817, and there in a log-house began a and far advanced in the shades of a life that has been crowded with activity and usefulness. The first settlers here used to do most of their milling at Beck's Mill on Blue River, in Washington County. After Hamer's Mill was built in Marion Township, in 1817, that was the resort of a large part of the county for a few years, whenever any grinding was wanted. Mills soon began to be more numerous, and the task of going to mill was not so great. John Hammersly was a man, in this part of the county, of rather a speculative turn, and he built several mills and then sold them to others. One of his he kept for a while on Sugar Creek about the year 1825. Not long after this he had what was considerable of a novelty in the line of grist-mills. In the river at the site of the town of Bono, Hammersly constructed a dam in the shape of a cone, allowing an opening in the center for the water to go through, and where a large undershot wheel was placed between two flat-boats. The buhrs were on the boats and the grinding was done in mid-stream. This continued for a few years, until an overflow washed it away and it went to pieces near "Old Palestine," where the buhr stones lay in the river for some time and were then taken to a mill on Indian Creek, in that township.

MARSHALL TOWNSHIP.

Marshall Township is the middle of the three townships that form the northern tier in the county. It is the smallest but one in the county, containing twenty-eight sections in all, and was named for John Marshall, the renowned Chief Justice of the United States. In this part of the county there was a number of land entries made as early as 1816, although none before that time, and in proportion to many parts of the county there were many more early purchasers for land here. This is somewhat hard to account for, as most of the township is hilly and broken, affording comparatively poor farming facilities. A portion of it, however, is perhaps equal to any agricultural land in the county. In the southern part are some of the stone quarries for which Lawrence County is so widely known. Large quantities of this stone are shipped to all parts of the country. Land was purchased of the Government as follows up to the year 1820: Jacob Hattabaugh, 1816; William Curl, 1816; Hamilton Reddick, 1817; John Fairley, 1819; John Goodwin, 1818; Robert Anderson, 1819; John Hargis, 1816; William Sackey, 1817; Jessé Brown, 1816; James Culley, 1816; Michael Hattabaugh, 1816; Jacob Bruner, 1818; Henry Brown, 1818; John Zumwald, 1818; Henry Leonard, 1818; Patrick Tyler, 1817; Nicholas Bruner, 1816; William Quillen, 1818; John Dryden, 1817; Joshua Gullett, 1818; John Quillen, 1818; Joseph Gullett, 1816; Adam House, 1816; Thomas Reynolds, 1817; Absalom Sargeant, 1817.

EARLY MILLS.

The first mill in this township, and one of the earliest in the county,

GUTHRIE CREEK BAPTIST CHURCH.

Formerly Leesville was in Jackson County, and so in the early minutes of White River Association we find Guthrie Creek Church described as in Jackson County. It is located about three miles northeast of Leesville, near the residence of Stephen Fountain. It was established in 1820 by John Kindred, John Woodmanson, Joseph Hanna and Walter Owens. Among its other early preachers were John Evans, Ambrose Carlton, J. Cole, E. Allen and others, and its early members were A. Zalmon, B. Owens, A. Dodds, F. Fountain and S. Fountain. It has never been a very vigorous church, though a very worthy one. Its present membership is composed principally of the Fountain and Owens families.

NEW UNION CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

New Union may be said to be the result of a new division in Shiloh. In a protracted meeting conducted by the Campbellites or Christians, in 1867, the minister, J. M. Mathes, was reminded by the church Trustees that the terms under which the building was used prohibited sectarian sermons. Understanding this to be a gentle hint, the Campbellites withdrew to the Pace schoolhouse, situated but a mile or so to the east, where the protracted meeting was continued. Many Methodists united with the church and in a short time it was found that a meeting-house was needed. Accordingly, sufficient ground for a church and graveyard was donated by William Tannehill and the present large church was erected. It is a white frame building, in size about 35x45 feet, cost about $1,500, and stands three miles west from Bedford. The church and graveyard began together. The charter members of this organization were: George S. W. Pace and wife, Alfred Pace, William Kern, William Tannehill, Mrs. Thomas Cole and daughter Fannie, Sanders Evans and wife, William Boyd and wife, Mrs. Alexander Kern, Abraham Reynolds and family. The Deacon from the beginning is George S. W. Pace, and the Elders are William Boyd, Samuel Nicholas and William Kern. Their first preacher was J. M. Mathes, who still occasionally holds services there. Among the various ministers who have been connected with the congregation as stated or regular supply may be mentioned James Blankenship, Milton McKee, Milton Short, Quincy Short, J. W. Newland, D. S. Stanley, A. M. Barton and others. The present pastor is John Williams. Connected with the church is a strong Sunday-school, under the direction of T. B. Cole.

MOUNT OLIVE CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

Mount Olive is an olive "branch" of old Port Williams Meeting House, and is located a mile and a half west of Williams Postoffice. The land on which the church stands was donated by Bart Williams, who assisted materially in the erection of the house as well. The build-

Dear Shirley

Glad to hear from you. My husband has an Allen in his line also. Think they probably came from N.C. though. Thomas I. Corbin married Margaret Elizabeth Allen - b. 1854 or 56. Daughter of James J. Allen and Mary Margaret Rust. James J. born 30 July 1832 in Ind. 1850 Census he was 18. Died in Martin Co. He was son of Elkanah Allen - b. N.C. and Sarah Cummins - b. N.C.

I have enclosed two sheets about Amanda Reynolds Wilson, her husband, folks and children.

I found Noah Reynolds also but have no proof. I enclosed what I had - On the sheet I had written - Ned Reynolds came about 1808 or 9. Took it from "History of Washington Co., Jackson Twp. That is near there, also.

The copy of obituary was sent me by a man from Bedford, Ind. (where is Bedford?) She was Amanda's sister. They were daughters of John + Martha Reynolds. I wonder if any of those grandchildren are still around there. They would be my husband's second cousins. He was R. Hillenburg ^{that I met the other} ~~He said the~~ gr. grandfather's sister - Ann Eliza Hillenburg married Seth Thomas Reynolds - 25 Apr 1872 Monroe Co. They had 2 children - Almeda and Lucinda. Deceased - 1875 - First wife Sarah M. Watson - married 1867 Monroe Co. He said most census records it just says Thomas.

Hope we can make some progress on the Reynolds line.

Sincerely

Bette Corbin

John + Martha were there with

Dear Shirley;

Thank you for your letter of 19 July, sorry the Allin/Allen lines were not the same.

On the Inventory of my grandfather Uriah Matney, Bartholomew Co. Ind. one of the appraisers was Daniel Reynolds. The other two were David Johnson and John Ma Cinny (Mc Kinny)?af dated 22 June 1832. Just thought you would like that little bit of info.

I do not know if Bettye Craven has researched the Craven line. I saw her query in a Kentucky publication for a Sebastian Mattingly. I had several pages on a Sebastian Eli Mattingly and family. It appears he showed up on some records as Sebastian and others as Eli. Anyway I wrote her to see if by chance it was her line. It was and it took her back to Maryland in the 1600's on her Mattingly line. Why can't Vicki and I be so lucky. ha Bettye said she planned a trip to Ft. Wayne this summer and she would check for early church records in Bartholomew and Brown Co.'s for me. I have not heard from her to see if she has yet made the trip.

From the "Old Tryon Co. N.C. Bulletin" Nov. 1981 I have this lady working CRAVENS out of N.C.. Her other line are STRAIN, FOWLER, GABBARD, HARRINGTON, REAVES, MONK, SHIPMAN, CRENSHAW, BRANCH, CARR, DENTON, CRAVENS, HAYS, HODGE, HODGES, FOLEY AND LOLLAR. I have not written to her, I was interested as she has a MONK line. My Monk family was out of N.C..
Mrs. M. J. Cravens = 4643 Gilbert Road = Memphis, Tenn. 38116.

My husbands Grimes family were early settlers of White Co. Ill.. Henry, James & William Grimes were brothers, a sister Elizabeth Grimes married John Files, Jr.. One of Henry Grimes, dau.'s married a Gowdy and one married a Williams, in White Co.. The family left White Co. in 1834 went to Greene Co. then to Pike Co.. James Grimes (my hus. gg grandfather) remained in Pike Co., Henry returned to White Co. in 1846 or 1847. I didn't know if the Cravens may have tied into any of these families.

Thanks again for the Allen material and your help. I wish I could come to Ft. Wayne to do research, as I have read so much about their holdings there.

So until later.

I remain,

Alma Francis

We made a trip to Brown Co. & Bartholomew Co. last Sept., and was out at the Mt. Zion Cem.. We did not find a lot on the family at the courthouses.

Dear Shirley -

Guess who - I'm still alive, I think. Been so busy, I really decided, I will never move again. Never, never. It takes a year to get settled. My next project is my genealogy room. It's a store room. So when I get letters, you know what I have to go through. I wrote to this man on the Reynolds line & I thought I would make a copy & send to you. Probably nothing new. I did read in one of your letters, no Daniel Reynolds was in the 1800 Knox Co, Key Census, only 1810. This man says there was one in the 1800. Maybe you know that now.

How have you been. Have you done any research. The one good news I have is, I live 5 minutes from the LDS library. I only work three days now instead of four. So I will be going to the library a lot. I wait & until I have my place in order, or I won't finish it. I know what will happen when I get started.

Well Shirley, just a note for this time. Hope all your family is OK.

Will get back to you again.

Dear Shirley -

Answering your add in the May-June 1983 Genealogical Helper on your Amy Reynolds.
As I have my Emeline Reynolds, 2nd
& grandmother born in Bartholomew
Co, I found your Amy Reynolds.
I would certainly be grateful if you checked your records for my
Emeline parents Benson Reynolds
& Priscilla Turpin. The 1850
Census says Benson (Benson) was born 1798 in Ky. & Priscilla b
1806 in Ky. They mar 14 Dec 1825,
Van Buren twp, Washington Co, Indiana.
If I could find out abt what part of Kentucky they came from. As your Amy was m 1827 & my Benson
m 1825 & both lived same county, there is a good chance of them being brother & sister. As your add only stated m date, I don't know just what is you have on her.

Hope we can exchange data,
& hoping this war date will help.

Looking forward & hearing from you -

Dear Shirley -

Guess who, I look what I have. I finally after years of buying books, & joining all these Family & Historical Society, I finally got some info. I sent a letter right back to Tom Turpin. These sheets are what he sent in. I don't know who his direct line is as yet until I hear from him, but what he sent in is a break.

And would you believe I had the name of Phoebe Garrett Golder, but never knew where it went until now. The record is on the yellow sheet.

Also the Will book of Thomas Turpin in Mercer Co Ky. I'm going to send for the film at the library.

Do you think our Reynolds are from Mercer Co. at least we are narrowing it down.

Did I tell you I'm a worker in the LDS genealogy library. I worked on one Saturday a month now, but I am retiring in April, then I will work every Tuesday nights. So I plan on doing more research. Getting back to work again.

I'm really excited, as this is the first big break we have had on the Turpins.

I'm coming to Indiana in Aug. Our son is getting married. Maybe we can meet again. I'll let you know the schedual as soon as I know it.

Well dear, this is enough for this time, don't want to get you too excited, don't know what will happen.

Love

John

Dear Shirley -

Hope all is well with you & your family. I haven't heard from you, & I have some more information on the Turpin & Reynolds line, so I'm sending it on to you.

I sent you the information in the Turpin newsletter that Tom Turpin had in it. I wrote to him, & I received a letter with a lot of information. I copied the whole thing for you. Also I made copies of some more of the newsletters I thought you would want. I'm really excited Shirley, this is the first break we have had. And I am convinced our Reynolds were in Mercer Co, Ky. I think we will have to start searching there. This narrows it down.

I'm going over my records & I think I have found two marriages. On the family group sheet that Tom sent on Thomas Turpin & Phebe Garrett, well if you will notice Thomas, born 1804 in TN was a Margaret Sturdevant? I think that is wrong, he married Margaret Sophia Casey 1 Nov 180. In the same record, Washington Co, 2nd Mar Recd, Averilla Turpin, daughter was Zachariah Spurgeon 15 Feb 1836, which he didn't have the date. Both records are together. At least it's a lead for now.

Love Shirley, hope you will have time to go over these records. We are coming back to Indianapolis in August, maybe we can see you, would love to.

Write when you can -

Love Jean

Dear Jean:

I am always glad to hear from anyone who is doing research on the Turpin family and especially glad to hear from those who are descendants of our Thomas Turpin. I did not realize how many Turpin descendants there were until I started doing research on my family. I became interested some years ago when I was working in Salt Lake City and made my first visit to the LDS Library. This was about 20 years ago. After that first visit, I spent every evening while in Salt Lake City at the Library. I was able to trace my line back to a Thomas whose earliest record I have is dated 1738. Since that time I have used professional genealogists in Virginia and in Salt Lake City to do research for me trying to find his parents and the parents of his wife, Averilla without being able to find any earlier information. I have accumulated several documents that trace our Thomas from Amelia Co., VA in 1738 to Franklin (Bute) Co., NC in 1770 to Mercer Co., KY in 1790 where he died in 1796.

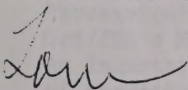

I have summarized information from these records and am sending you a copy. I am unable to document the names of all his children, but, am sending a copy of a list of those whom I believe may be his children, based on the records that I have.

My ancestor was Josiah, the youngest son of Thomas Sr and a brother of your Thomas who married Phoebe Garret. I was glad to get the name of the father of Phoebe. Thank you for sending it to me. Since my line is not through your Thomas, I have not done further research on the Reynolds and Spurgeon lines. However, I have attempted to identify all of the children of Thomas Sr and have tried to find where they moved from Garrard Co., KY. I wonder if the Daniel Turpin who married Mary Reynolds could have been the son of the Daniel Turpin who moved from Garrard Co., KY to Marion Co., MO prior to 1830. I believe that this Daniel may have been the son of Jeremiah whose children came to Garrard Co.

The record that you found in the Mercer Co Will Book is that of our Thomas whose wife was Averilla.

I can almost trace every movement that our Thomas made after 1738, but have never found anything prior to that date. I hope that some of the Turpin researchers may be able to find documents that will either prove or disprove the assumptions that I have made on the enclosed material.

Your cousin

An Administrators Bond on the Estate of Samuel Hancock, decd, dated 10 May 1774 was signed as security by Thomas Turpin and Benjamin Eaves.

The will of Thomas Turpin dated 20 Nov 1796 was proved in the March Term of the Mercer Co Court with Thomas Gill, John Calverd, Michael Mires and William Mires as witnesses. His will provided for his wife, Averiler and four sons- Edmund, Josiah, Jeremiah and Thomas. The 1000 acres of land in Robertson Co was divided among the four sons. In addition to the land, each of the sons was given a slave with the remainder of the property going to Averiler and Jeremiah who remained on the farm. His livestock included horses, cattle, sheep and hogs.

Records have not been found which would make it possible to identify all the children of Thomas. In his will of 1796 four of his children were named- Jeremiah, Josiah, Edmund and Thomas.

In a deed of a portion of the land on Dicks River received from Thomas, Jeremiah and his wife, Sally, sold to Benjamin Perkins, a neighbor, on 2 Jan 1804.

Also, Jeremiah and wife, Sally, sold a part of the land received from his Father to Frances Hancock for 400 dollars 3 Apr 1805. Also, Jeremiah sold the land inherited in Robertson Co., TN to Daniel Curd for 50 lbs 23 Dec 1797.

Thomas Turpin Jr sold 50 acres of the land received from Thomas Sr to Benjamin Perkins for 200 dollars. At that time, he was in Jefferson Co., KY, dated 26 Oct 1807. Mentioned as being along Henry Turpin's old line. Thomas Jr had married Phebe Garrett 7 Sep 1798 in Mercer Co., KY. The land which Thomas inherited in Robertson Co., TN was sold by his estate to Wm Roberts indentures dated 10 Sep 1835 recorded in Robertson Co Deed Bk Y p 335, 337, 339, 341, 343. Josiah Turpin sold his inheritance in Robertson Co to Wm Reed 29 Dec 1803 and was living in Ohio Co., KY at that time. He had married Elizabeth Mires 5 Apr 1796 in Mercer Co.

Edmund (Edward) Turpin moved on to the land that he inherited from his father in Robertson Co and remained in TN.

Averilla Turpin married Benjamin Egerton in Franklin Co., NC 8 Jul 1784 and was born 3 Dec 1763 according to the Revolutionary Pension records. Among these records is a statement that Thomas died 27 Nov 1796 and that her mother, Averilla died 26 Nov 1806.

Hugh Turpin who married Jane Murray 25 Jan 1774 in Bute Co., NC is believed to be a son of Thomas. His will dated 18 Dec 1777 in Ninety-Six District of SC names Thomas Turpin as one of the Executors and provides that Jane and daughter, Sally, "repair to friends in NC". Hugh named a brother, Richard, to whom was bequeathed 250 lbs current money of SC.

Richard whose will was dated 11 Aug 1787 and filed in Jefferson Co., KY is believed to have been the one mentioned in the will of Hugh. Richard left his property in NC & SC to his brother Henry and his property in VA to his brothers Jeremiah and Thomas. Jefferson Co Will Bk A p 133.

Henry Turpin is believed to be a son of Thomas as he was deeded a portion of the land in Mercer Co by Thomas at the same time that land was deeded to Thomas Jr and Benjamin Egerton. Also, he was probably the brother referred to in the will of Richard above. Also, it is believed that this Henry was the husband of Elizabeth Cooke, the daughter of Shem Cooke who was named in his will proved in the August Court 1796 in Granville Co., NC. Also, it is believed that this is the same Henry who sold the land received from Thomas to John McMurtry on 12 Nov 1798 with John B Perkins, Benjamin Perkins and Jeremiah Turpin as witnesses. Also, Henry sold additional acreage to John McMurtry 25 Sep 1800 after he had moved to Ohio Co., KY. Witnesses were Benjamin Egerton, Nicholas Perkins and Stephen Perkins. William Turpin who enlisted in Lytle's Company on 5 Apr 1781 in NC is believed to be a son and believed to be the same one whose will in Daviess Co., KY 22 Dec 1824 with sons William, Edwin & Thomas and a nephew, Thomas.

Ann Hancock sold the portion of land deeded to her by Thomas Turpin containing 100 acres along the Dicks River in Garrard Co which was a portion of his original purchase on 13 Jan 1819. She is believed to be a daughter.

If the above assumptions are correct, then, the children of Thomas were Henry, William, Richard, Hugh, Jeremiah, Thomas, Edward and Josiah, and Ann and Averilla. Mathew who patented the land adjoining that of Thomas and Michael who purchased the land from Mathew may have been brothers of Thomas.

Although I have not been able to document it, there is evidence that Thomas Turpin may have been married twice and had two sets of children.

His close association with members of the Ligon family would indicate that his first wife may have been a Ligon. He was a witness to deeds of William & Joseph Ligon in Amelia Co., VA in 1738. He was a witness to a deed from William Ligon Sr to William Ligon Jr 14 Jan 1743 in Amelia Co. William Ligon and Henry Ligon were witnesses at a trial where Thomas Turpin was the defendant 17 Aug 1744 in Amelia Co. He was a witness with Henry and Sarah Ligon to a deed of Land from William Ligon Jr to William Ligon Sr in Amelia Co 28 Sep 1746. He was granted 400 acres of land on both sides of Sandy Creek in Amelia Co 25 Sep 1746. On the same date William Ligon was granted 400 acres on Sandy Creek in Amelia Co. He was a witness to a deed with Ann Turpin from Joseph Ligon of Chesterfield Co., VA to James Ligon of Chesterfield Co the land being on Sandy Creek in Amelia Co 17 Jun 1756. Is this Ann Turpin the wife of Thomas or is it Anne Robertson who Married Jeremiah Turpin? Thomas deeded land in Mercer Co., KY, which she sold 13 Jan 1819, to Ann Hancock who was probably a daughter. Possibly, the children of Thomas by his first wife were: Hugh, William, Richard and Henry all common names in the Ligon family and Ann who could have been named for her Mother.

On the death of his first wife, Thomas may have married Avarilla who could have been the daughter of John Smith. Thomas was appointed as one of the appraisers of the estate of John Smith 25 Jun 1764. The will of John Smith included Sarah Lewis, wife of Berry Lewis, dated 6 Feb 1764 and recorded 17 May 1764. Thomas was bonded for 100 pounds in Granville Co., NC for the care of Berry and Sarah Lewis during their lifetime 16 Apr 1787. Thomas was assignee of Thomas Smith assignee of John Smith decd in Prince Edward Co., VA 17 Jul 1769. Probable children of Thomas and second wife were: Avarilla named after her mother and born 3 Dec 1763 in Prince Edward Co., Jeremiah, Thomas, Edward (Edmund) and Josiah.

Although I have not been able to determine if Lewis' evidence that Thomas Turpin may have been married twice and had two sons of children.

His name associated with members of the Ligon family would indicate that his first wife may have been a Ligon. He was a witness to deeds of William & Joseph Ligon in Amelia Co., VA in 1758. He was a witness to a deed from William Ligon to his wife in 1764. In 1764 in Amelia Co. William Ligon and Henry Ligon were witnesses of a trial where Thomas Turpin was the defendant. In 1764 in Amelia Co. He was a witness with Henry and Sarah Ligon to a deed of land from William Ligon to his wife in Amelia Co. in 1764. He was granted 400 acres of land on both sides of Sandy Creek in Amelia Co. 25 Sep 1764. On the same date William Ligon was granted 400 acres on Sandy Creek in Amelia Co. He was a witness to a deed with Ann Turpin from Joseph Ligon of Chesterfield Co., VA to James Ligon of Chesterfield Co. the land being on Sandy Creek in Amelia Co. 17 Sep 1764. In this Ann Turpin was wife of Thomas of 11 John Robertson who married Margaret Turpin. Thomas died in 1764 in New York Co., NY which she said 13 Jan 1764. In 1764 a daughter who was probably a daughter. Possibly, the children of Thomas by his first wife were Hugh, William, Richard and Henry all common names in the Ligon family and Ann who could have been named for her father.

On the death of his first wife, Thomas may have married Averilla who could have been the daughter of John Smith. Thomas was appointed as one of the executors of the estate of John Smith 25 Jan 1764. The will of John Smith included Sarah Lewis, wife of Harry Lewis, dated 2 Feb 1764 and recorded 17 May 1764. Thomas was bonded for 100 pounds in Spotsylvania Co., VA for the care of Harry and Sarah Lewis during their lifetime 10 Apr 1767. Thomas was assigned of Thomas Smith executor of John Smith bond in Prince Edward Co., VA 17 Jul 1767. Probable children of Thomas and second wife were Averilla named after her mother and born 2 Dec 1767 in Prince Edward Co., Virginia. Thomas, Edward (son) and Joseph.

Note: The above Land Sales are taken from the original records located in the State Archives. The date shown is the date of record rather than the date of purchase. Most volumes do not give the day and month and may cover a period of one or more years. The volume and page refer to the volume and page of the original record. The location is the Section Township and Range in which the land is located.

EMIGRATION. No continuous record of emigrants exists, but the following may be noted:

Tickets granted to persons leaving Barbados, 1679.
(in Hotten's "Original lists.....").

Bonds for tickets to depart the island, March - April 1766, 11 items only.

Register of persons departing, n.d. (1 year only, ca 1824 - 1835).

SHIPPING. No continuous record of arrivals and departures exists, but slight evidence of shipping movements may be obtained from various sources, mostly relating to cargoes and duties, for the following years:

1708-1726	1786	c.1824-1835 (1 year only)
1730-1734	1807-1809	1839
1736	1817-1819	1842-1843
1766	1824	1851-1852

There are also ships protests for 1806, 1818-1819, 1830, 1835, and 1841 to date, but these also deal mainly with goods

INDEX TO PLANTATIONS. The Department has compiled an index of plantations and owners, mainly of the 19th century, which is also helpful for some family searches.

NEWSPAPERS. There are newspapers in Barbados for 1783-1784, 1787-1789 and for most years from 1805 onwards. Although the earliest Barbados newspaper is believed to have been published in 1731, only a few single issues in the years 1733, 1742, 1745-1747, 1753, 1761, 1766, 1775, 1781, 1783, and 1803 are known prior to the collections existing in Barbados.

Extracts from the newspapers between 1783 and 1870 mostly relating to Barbadian affairs and families, have been published in Vols. 1-33 of the Journal of the Barbados Museum and Historical Society (and still continues).

BARBADOS MUSEUM AND HISTORICAL SOCIETY JOURNALS. The Barbados Museum and Historical Society, established in 1933, has published a Journal since that date, now (1972) in its 34th volume. Vols. 1-25 have been indexed for names by Mr. E.M. McConney, now of Portland, Oregon, in typescript. The index is available for use at the Museum and at the Department of Archives.

You Searchers sure have been busy. I have so much to index and catch up on - - oh for a computer! We all thank you for sending it in. It always amazea me to find MORE Turpin info. I keep thinking we have found all there is to find.

QUERY: Seek information as to date and place of birth and parents of Willima Turpin. He was transported to Somerset Co., Mr. in 1661, m. Margaret Ivery 6 Jan 1668 and d. about 1685. Children were John, Solomon, Mary, Elizabeth, Peter, Sarah and William. Have considerable information on Solomon's line and will be happy to share. Cud-T. Baird, 22 Thomas Sumter, Beaufort, S.C. 29902.

Heard about a Turpin gathering in Macon Co., Ill this spring or early summer. Contact Lois Goodson, 318 N. 5th, Albion, Ill 62806 for more information.

Sue Monaghan writes with the inscription on the headstone of Elizabeth Turpin. It says "wife of Hugh" - not Phillip. Wonder if they are one in the same? Wouldn't be the first time Turpins used both names to confuse us.

Note: The above Land Sales are taken from the original records located in the State Archives. The date shown is the date of record rather than the date of purchase. Most volumes do not give the day and month and may cover a period of one or more years. The volume and page refer to the volume and page of the original record. The location is the Section Township and Range in which the land is located.

EMIGRATION. No continuous record of emigrants exists, but the following may be noted:

Tickets granted to persons leaving Barbados, 1679.
(In Hotten's "Original lists.....").

Bonds for tickets to depart the island, March - April 1766, 11 items only.

Register of persons departing, n.d. (1 year only, ca 1824 - 1835).

SHIPPING. No continuous record of arrivals and departures exists, but slight evidence of shipping movements may be obtained from various sources, mostly relating to cargoes and duties, for the following years:

1708-1726	1786	c.1824-1835 (1 year only)
1730-1734	1807-1809	1839
1736	1817-1819	1842-1843
1766	1824	1851-1852

There are also ships protests for 1806, 1818-1819, 1830, 1835, and 1841 to date, but these also deal mainly with goods

INDEX TO PLANTATIONS. The Department has compiled an index of plantations and owners, mainly of the 19th century, which is also helpful for some family searches.

NEWSPAPERS. There are newspapers in Barbados for 1783-1784, 1787-1789 and for most years from 1805 onwards. Although the earliest Barbados newspaper is believed to have been published in 1731, only a few single issues in the years 1733, 1742, 1745-1747, 1753, 1761, 1766, 1775, 1781, 1783, and 1803 are known prior to the collections existing in Barbados.

Extracts from the newspapers between 1783 and 1870 mostly relating to Barbadian affairs and families, have been published in Vols. 1-33 of the Journal of the Barbados Museum and Historical Society (and still continues).

BARBADOS MUSEUM AND HISTORICAL SOCIETY JOURNALS. The Barbados Museum and Historical Society, established in 1933, has published a Journal since that date, now (1972) in its 34th volume. Vols. 1-25 have been indexed for names by Mr. E.M. McConney, now of Portland, Oregon, in typescript. The index is available for use at the Museum and at the Department of Archives.
